

ENGLISH LANGUAGE TEACHER
PHARO SCHOOL, HOMOSHA

COMPANY OVERVIEW

The Pharo Foundation (“the Foundation”) is a privately funded entrepreneurial organisation that runs philanthropic programmes as well as for-profit social enterprises. The Vision of the Foundation is an economically vibrant and inclusive Africa. The Mission is to achieve the Vision by investing in the human and physical capital of Africa, with an emphasis on job creation.

Established in 2011 as a UK based non-profit, the Foundation has already carried out more than 30 projects, primarily in Ethiopia and Somaliland. The key themes for the philanthropic side of the Foundation are education, health, water and agriculture. Social enterprises cover all sectors where the Foundation can make an impact financially, create jobs and add value in a sustainable manner.

Headquartered in London, the Foundation also has an operational HQ in Nairobi and offices in, Addis Ababa, Assosa and Hargeisa.

POSITION SUMMARY

Pharo School, Homosha, in Ethiopia is an innovative boarding school, funded by the Pharo Foundation. Student enrollment is intentionally small (current student population of just over 100 students), but the school has a supersized vision to provide a high quality, empowering and meaningful education for high school aged young women in rural, Benishangul Gumuz Region, Ethiopia.

Our small class sizes, well-resourced facility and dedicated team of educators seek to rapidly accelerate student learning and English skill development, while building confidence, creativity and critical thinking skills. The school’s goal is to see each student pursue post-secondary education and become leaders and role models in their respective communities.

The Pharo School is now seeking for an experienced and dedicated teacher who can build our students’ English language skills (reading, writing, and speaking) with a structured, outcome oriented approach, grounded in phonics and the best strategies of teaching English as a foreign language.

Qualifications to Apply:

- B.(Ed)/M(Education)/B.A. in English, Linguistics or related course work
